Grand Jury Completes Investigation of the Goebel Assassination.

Ex-Gov. Bradley, Taylor's Leading Counsel, Says He Has No Doubt but What His Client Will Surrender Promptly If Indicted.

Frankfort, Ky., April 21.-The grand jury before adjourning Thursday until Saturday indicted Republican Gov. W. S. Taylor as an accessory to the murder of William Goebel. The indictment is similar to those returned against Green Golden and John Davis Thursday. It was no+ turned over to the circuit court, but left in the hands of Judge Cantrill, who gave the jurors and court officials orders not to allow it to become public until a bench warrant, issued Thursday, is served. The news, however, leaked out, and wires between here and Washington were kept hot Thursday night by messages to Taylor from republicans who advise him to remain away, for the present, at Frankfort, Ky., April 23.-While the Franklin county grand jury has not adjourned, it is understood that the investigation of the Goebel assassination has been completed. The indictment against Mr. Taylor, charging him with being an accessory to the murder, will be held up until after the argument of the governorship contest case, which is docketed for hearing before the supreme court at Wasliington on April 30, and it said by persons in the councils of the prosecution that no such warrant will be issued or other steps taken in the case till after that time. The rumor that Beckham had been applied to for a requisition is without foundation.

Ex-Gov. W. O. Brardley, leading counsel for Mr. Taylor, gave to the press the following authorized inter-

"I have had no communication with Gov. Taylor since he went to Washington. The press, I notice, states that he is there preparing his case for the supreme court. I am satisfied that this is not true. Gov. Taylor went to Washington on purely personal business not connected in any way with the trial of his case. Nor do I believe the report to be true that he is in New York attempting to prevent the honoring of a requisition for his return to this state. As to whether a requisition could be lawfully issued by Mr. Beckham or would be recognized, it is unnecessary for me to express an opinion, as there are questions that must be determined by the authority upon whom such a requisition may be made.

fugitive from justice, and that if indicted he would respect the law and meet his accusers face to face. Therefore, there remains but one course open to him, and that is to return as soon as he can, walk boldly and bravely into court and meet the indictment like a man. Any other course would be rank injustice not only to himself. but to those of his friends who have been accused of so foul a crime. I do not know whether an indictment has been found against Gov. Taylor, but if it has I have no doubt that he will promptly surrender himself into the hands of the law, and believe that any his promise in regard to the settleintimation to the contrary does him nn injustice."

feared that 20 or 30 lives have been lost in the forest fires along the Southeastern railroad. The delayed regular train arrived early Saturday and the lumberman who had escaped from the fire confirm all reports of the serious nature of the fires and especially expressed fears for the safety of the men at Keith's lumber camp. The fire smoldered for two or three days, and was fanned into a blaze by a high wind, sweeping clean a strip three miles wide. The water tank of metal and full of water at Vassar's Siding was consumed. It is stated that all the men in Keith's and Buchanan's lumber camps were surrounded. Many horses are known to have perished. It is hoped, however, that some at least of the men may have escaped. The property loss will be very heavy.
